

About the Presenter

KEN PHILLIPS is a Park Ranger-Paramedic with Grand Canyon National Park (AZ), where he serves as the Chief of Emergency Services (EMS, SAR and Structural Fire). The EMS and SAR programs at Grand Canyon NP, are one of the busiest in the NPS. Ken has served as an instructor on SAR and situational awareness both nationally and internationally. Ken also serves as a United States delegate to the International Commission on Alpine Rescue (IKAR)- Air Rescue Sub-Commission in Europe. Ken is currently the Incident Commander-NPS ESF-9 Land SAR Incident Management Team (IMT).